FIGHTING TO PROTECT SOCIAL SECURITY AND MEDICARE!

April 6, 2018

The speaker for this month will be Megan Craley from the York County Area Agency on Aging.

The York County Commissioners are investigating the sale of Pleasant Acres, the county owned nursing home. The County owned home is critical for care of people who have run out of resources, a position that many of us may find ourselves in someday. It is wrong for the Commissioner's to try to wash their hands of the need to provide care. Let's keep our promise to take care of one another. The current additional cost to keep the home under York County control is only about $6.00 per property owner per year*. Let's sign up for that and then explore ways to get State and Federal government to step up to the fact that as a country we are getting older and many don't have the resources and need help. Call the Commissioner's office at 717-771-9964 and ask them not to sell Pleasant Acres.

*For a home assessed at $100,000. Source: York Daily Record 03/20/18
